The Honorable John W. Hickenlooper
Office of the Governor
136 State Capitol Building
Denver, CO 80203

Governor Hickenlooper,

Law enforcement officers hold together the fabric of our communities. They protect our families and honor the call to serve, all while making great personal sacrifices. As such, I ask that you join me in honoring our law enforcement community by illuminating the Colorado State Capitol Building in blue light this January 9th to celebrate National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day.

National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day is the perfect opportunity to show our gratitude and unwavering support for our law enforcement community. I hope you will join me in honoring Colorado's men and women in blue that work tirelessly to keep us safe each and every day. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Ken Buck
Member of Congress
